

Comms Committee Overview

July 16, 2024

The NASWA Communications Committee serves as a forum for the Communications Directors and staff from the 50 states, three territories, and District of Columbia workforce agencies to increase and enhance communications between NASWA and member states, bring attention to and advocate for the work being undertaken on important workforce and unemployment insurance activities and policies nationally and in the states, and leverage messaging at the state and national levels.

Document Upload

Communications Committee One-Pager.pdf

Attachment	Size
communications-committee-one-pager.pdf	129.77 KB 129.77 KB