Senate Labor, HHS, Education Appropriations Measure Passes Subcommittee, Full Committee Markup Postponed

On Tuesday, June 10, the Senate Committee on Appropriations, Subcommittee on Labor, Health and Human Services (HHS), Education (ED) and Related Agencies approved a $156.7 billion discretionary spending bill that funds federal health, education and workforce programs, including the U.S. Department of Labor.

The Subcommittee markup was relatively short and no amendments were offered to the proposed bill. While the Chairman of the Subcommittee, Senator Tom Harkin (D-IA), urged fellow lawmakers to support the bill as “a thoughtful approach to funding critical programs,” the Ranking Member of the Senate Committee on Appropriations, Senator Richard Shelby (R-AL) indicated he would not support the Labor-HHS-Education Subcommittee bill due to its funding for health care exchanges under the Affordable Care Act.

The text of the legislation was not released during the markup on Tuesday; however the Subcommittee provided a summary of highlighted provisions. Listed below is a summary of workforce and unemployment insurance provisions provided in the document:

- Reemployment and Eligibility Assessments and Reemployment Services (REA/RES) – The Subcommittee bill proposes $157.7 million for REA/RES, the same level requested in the Obama Administration’s proposed FY 2015 Budget Request. The amount allocated for REA/RES is approximately twice the amount of funding provided for these services in FY 2014, and according to the Subcommittee will result in a net savings of more than $262 million.

- Workforce Investment Act Grants – The Subcommittee bill proposes increasing funding for Workforce Investment Act programs from $2.58 billion in FY 2014 to $2.62 billion in FY 2015, an increase of $36 million. In its summary, the Subcommittee did not indicate whether or not there would be an increase in the WIA State Allocation, which was increased in FY 2014 from five percent to 8.75 percent.

- Apprenticeship Programs – The Subcommittee bill proposes $35,000,000, an increase of $5,000,000, (from the Administration’s request) to expand Registered Apprenticeship.

After the Subcommittee markup and passage of the legislation on Tuesday, the full Senate Committee on Appropriations was scheduled to markup and vote on the measure on Thursday, June 12; however it was cancelled, and in a brief interview, Senator Harkin said, “there are no plans” for when the markup would be rescheduled.

Senate Committee on Appropriations Chairwoman Barbara Mikulski (D-MD) said the reason for the postponement was, “there were very controversial amendments related to Affordable Care Act and scheduling issues.” There is a possibility that due to the controversial provisions contained in the Labor-HHS-Education Subcommittee bill; it is unlikely the legislation will go to the full Committee and passage before the November mid-term Congressional elections.

NASWA Sends Letter in Support of Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act

On Friday, May 30, NASWA President Mark Henry (MS) sent a letter to members on the House Committee on Education and the Workforce and the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions strongly supporting the enactment of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), which was an agreement announced earlier in May by a bipartisan, bicameral group of lawmakers reauthorizing and overhauling the Workforce Investment Act of 1998.
WIOA represents a compromise between the SKILLS Act (H.R. 803), which passed the House of Representatives in March 2013 and the Workforce Investment Act of 2013 (S. 1356), which passed through the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions (HELP) with a bipartisan vote of 18-3 in July of 2013.

Primary bill sponsors include Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions (HELP) Chairman Tom Harkin (D-IA), HELP Committee Ranking Member Lamar Alexander (R-TN), Senate Committee on Budget Chairman and HELP Committee Member Patty Murray (D-WA), Senate HELP Subcommittee on Employment and Workplace Safety Ranking Member Johnny Isakson (R-GA), House Committee on Education and the Workforce Chairman John Kline (R-MN), House Committee on Education and the Workforce Ranking Member George Miller (D-CA), House Education and the Workforce Subcommittee on Higher Education and Workforce Training Chairwoman Virginia Foxx (R-NC) and Ranking Member of the House Subcommittee on Higher Education and Workforce Training Ranking Member Ruben Hinojosa (D-TX).

In the letter, NASWA praised the agreement, saying it “would modernize and improve existing federal workforce development programs, help workers attain skills for 21st century jobs, and foster the modern workforce critical for American businesses to remain competitive.” NASWA specifically expressed support for several of the following provisions contained in WIOA that would:

- Reauthorizes workforce programs;
- Retain the 15 percent WIA state allocation authorization;
- Retain and improve the Wagner-Peyser Act;
- Streamline or eliminate existing programs, such as the Workforce Innovation Fund (WIF);
- Restructure the Workforce Information Council (WIC);
- Reduce the number of required members on state and local workforce boards;
- Repeal the “sequence of services” provision; and
- Apply common performance measures to all federal workforce programs.

WIOA represents an informal conference agreement between the House’s H.R. 803 and the Senate's S. 1356, and as such, will not require the new bill to go through each chamber’s respective authorizing Committee. The bill will be first considered in the Senate as an amendment to the House passed H.R. 803, where it is currently being “hotlined” among Senate offices for review. After Senators have reviewed the agreement, and if there are no objections by members, the agreement will then be able to go directly to the Senate floor. No specific date has been given as to when WIOA would be considered on the Senate floor, however staff have indicated the bill would likely not be considered until after the week of June 16 at the earliest. If the bill is able to pass the Senate, it will then go directly to the House floor for consideration.

Demystifying the National Labor Exchange

NASWA is pleased to present An Introduction to the National Labor Exchange for State Workforce Agencies to serve as a primer for all state workforce agency staff members.

The National Labor Exchange (NLX) is a unique public-private partnership between NASWA and DirectEmployers Association, a nonprofit employer-led consortium. Created in 2007, the NLX was specifically designed to support State Workforce Agencies, employers, and jobseekers by using a sophisticated technology platform to bring “real” and available job opportunities to State Workforce Agency job banks and other trusted labor exchange partners. Every day through the US.jobs platform, the NLX makes available 1.5 million unique job vacancies to job seekers in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Guam and Puerto Rico. The NLX partnership also brings valuable technology services, including state-led microsites and job bank hosting to state workforce agencies at no additional cost.

For information on the National Labor Exchange, please visit http://naswa.org/nlx/.

Minnesota Launches New Bioscience-Focused Microsite

The National Labor Exchange (NLX) recently launched mn-bioscience.jobs, the first state association-partnered microsite. The Minnesota Department of Employment and Economic Development collaborated with LifeScience Alley, a Minnesota-based trade association focusing on the bioscience community.

Microsites use search engine optimized pages designed to improve a state’s ranking on individual search results. Consequently, microsites will gradually rank higher on search engine (Google) results pages, substantially increasing jobseeker traffic back to state job banks, and ultimately facilitate a more efficient labor exchange. This is an increasingly important resource for states as, on average, there are over 613 million employment related searches performed on search engines every month.

The NLX offers state workforce agencies up to ten no-cost .jobs microsites. In addition to being mobile-enabled, the sites are search engine optimized (SEO) and social media integrated. To learn more about microsites and mobile functionality for your state job bank, please contact NASWA NLX Operations Manager Charlie Terrell at cterrell@naswa.org.

Hilton HHonors Military Begins with Four-State Pilot Program

In September 2013, NASWA and Hilton Worldwide entered into an agreement to support veterans seeking employment assistance from state workforce agencies. The effort on behalf of Hilton Worldwide is just one small part of Hilton’s Operation: Opportunity initiative to provide support to U.S. military veterans and their families. Operation: Opportunity also includes the commitment to hire 10,000 veterans at more than 3,900 hotels worldwide and in corporate offices within the next five years.

As part of the NASWA/Hilton agreement, Hilton HHonors Military has been created to provide an avenue for Hilton Worldwide to partner with individual state workforce agencies to support hotel stays related to job search activity for eligible job seekers. State workforce agencies will have the flexibility to determine eligibility criteria based on current state-wide employment and reemployment initiatives already in place for transitioning service members, veterans, and/or military spouses. The initiative officially kicked off on Memorial Day weekend in Iowa during the state’s Home Base Iowa legislation signing by Governor Terry Branstad.

Piloting the Hilton HHonors Military initiative are Iowa, Minnesota, Arizona and Texas. These four states worked through the following process in getting the program ready in their states:

- Creating an MOU template between Hilton and the state workforce agency;
- Determining state-specific eligibility criteria, referral guidelines, approval flow, as well as local and state points of contact.

Each state has the flexibility to tweak the program to best serve their current eligible jobseeker population. Ultimately, these efforts have created an important roadmap for future states to use and join the initiative. NASWA looks forward to documenting efforts and reporting on HHonors Military outcomes in the near future.

For more information about HHonors Military – or if your state would like to join the initiative, please contact NASWA NLX Veteran Services Manager Lisa Stern at lstern@naswa.org.

States to receive the WDQI grants include: CT, IN, KY, MS, NE, and NJ. Grantees will be expected to use these longitudinal databases to conduct research and analysis aimed at determining the effectiveness of workforce and education programs and to develop tools to better inform customers about the benefits of the publicly-funded workforce system.
