Who is the DirectEmployers Association

DirectEmployers Association is a nonprofit HR consortium of leading global employers formed to improve labor market efficiency through the sharing of best practices, research and the development of technology.

DirectEmployers is managed by a Board of Directors consisting of member company representatives. Daily operations are managed by an Executive Director and operations staff at the direction of the President and Board of Directors.

DirectEmployers offers employer members:

1. A strategic recruiting community where ideas, resources, and practices are shared.
2. Processes, technologies and standards that are shaped; and
3. Technology is used in a manner which acknowledges, values, and respects diversity and reflects the rich array of cultures represented in a broad global workforce.
