

Grow with Google

Supporting our military service members and their spouses

Explore tools and resources designed by Google to help you transition from military to civilian life

Visit grow.google/veterans to learn more

Now, you can search "jobs for veterans" and enter your military occupation code to find civilian jobs that match your skills.

Begin your job search

You can search "jobs for veterans" on Google and enter your military occupation code (MOS, AFSC, NEC or rating) to see relevant civilian jobs that require similar skills to those used in your military roles.

Start or grow your business

For many veterans, starting and running a local business is your new calling.

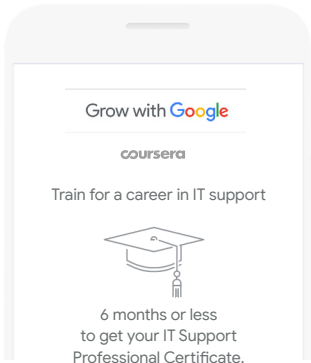

You can now identify your business as owned, led, or founded by veterans by adding a “Veteran-Led” attribute to your listing on Google, which will show up when people look for your business on Google Search and Maps. You can manage your listing and add the attribute through Google My Business.

2.52 million

The current number of veteran-owned businesses in the U.S. (9% of all U.S. businesses).<sup>1</sup>

25%

The percent of transitioning service members who say they want to start their own business.<sup>2</sup>

Launch a career in IT Support

You can get qualified for an entry-level job in IT support in six months or less with the IT Support Professional Certificate. No IT experience is necessary. After completion, we'll help you connect with potential employers like Google and more than 30 others that are looking to hire entry-level IT Support Specialists.

You may be eligible for a scholarship to complete the IT Certificate through the United Service Organizations (USO) or Student Veterans of America.

Visit grow.google/veterans to learn more

1. "Veteran-Owned Businesses and Their Owners", Data from the U.S. Census Bureau's Survey of Business Owners, 2017
2. "Annual Report 2017," Bunker Labs