Labor Department Provides Businesses $510,000 to Expand Apprenticeships

PIERRE, S.D. – The Department of Labor and Regulation (DLR) has provided $510,000 in incentive funding to help businesses expand the number of pre-apprenticeships and Registered Apprenticeships in South Dakota.

The announcement was made at the Start Today SD Summit held at Mitchell Technical Institute on Tuesday. Businesses could apply for up to a maximum of $30,000 in funding to help offset the initial start-up costs when developing a new program.

“Registered Apprenticeships are a great way for businesses to build a quality workforce with the exact skills they need to fill their openings,” said state DLR Secretary Marcia Hultman. “Through this incentive funding, we intend to add 200 active apprentices by the fall of 2020.”

Incentive funding recipients for pre-apprenticeships:

- Aberdeen Fire and Rescue, Aberdeen, Healthcare, $10,000
- Huron Regional Medical Center, Huron, Healthcare, $10,000
- Northeast Technical High School, Watertown Area, Advanced Manufacturing, $10,000
- Paramedics Logistics SD LLC, Sioux Falls, Healthcare, $10,000
- RTEC Inc., Yankton, Advanced Manufacturing, $10,000
- Yankton County EMS, Yankton, Healthcare, $10,000

Incentive funding recipients for Registered Apprenticeships:

- Aberdeen Fire and Rescue, Aberdeen, Healthcare, $20,000
- Applied Engineering Inc., Yankton, Advanced Manufacturing, $26,000
- Bear Butte Gardens, Sturgis, Agriculture, $28,000
- Dynamic Engineering, Watertown, Advanced Manufacturing, $30,000
- Howe Inc., Sioux Falls, Construction/Building Trades, $14,000
- Huron Regional Medical Center, Huron, Healthcare, $30,000
- Independent Health Solutions LLC, Huron, Healthcare, $28,000

- Lake Area Technical Institute, Watertown, Advanced Manufacturing, $20,000
- LemmonMade Inc., Lemmon, Agriculture, $26,000
