UINTERACT

Missouri's online UI application, UInteract, moved to an Angular platform. The platform provides a structured development system that allows for more efficient performance, flexibility and scalability. These changes create a more secure and stable application, protect sensitive data and provide greater overall protection.

RE-ENTRY JOB CENTERS

The Department of Higher Education and Workforce Development has continued its partnership with Department of Corrections to expand Re-Entry Job Centers behind the walls in eighteen facilities statewide. Justice involved individuals have access to all available one-stop services while incarcerated and link to employment and training services prior to release.

CAREER OPPORTUNITY TRAINING FOR YOUTH (C.O.T.Y)

The COTY program is a federally funded initiative through the Missouri Department of Higher Education and Workforce Development, designed to support students in high school. This initiative provides work experience opportunities that equip students with the skills and training for their future careers.
